

To whom it may concern
Sinclair appears to have overestimated its influence, and underestimated the American people.
If it continues to refuse to honor our military fallen and intends to slander Senator Kerry, it does not bode well for the company's future. Advertisers will not wish to continue their association, and the value of its stock will continue to decline.
In a 'free' society such as ours, there is no place for propaganda such as is found on FOX News or this right-wing garbage 'Stolen Honor'.
I've had all the misrepresenting I can take for this election cycle thank you.
Enough.
